

About me

I create unique decorations.

It started innocently enough with my daughter's first birthday. – I made my first flower decorations for her.

Later I started working on isolon and foamiran. Each new order was a challenge and a new experience for me.

As befits an artist, I complete each order with great precision and attention to every detail. I am a responsible person who strives to ensure that what I do reflects reality. Anyone looking for unique decorations will find them here...

DECORATION*
